Purpose

The Constitution of the Australian Catholic University enables:

The Senators to delegate their powers under the Constitution to Officers of the University. Clause 15.6 provides:

The Senators may at any time confer upon any other Senator, any State Chapter or such other Officer of the Corporation as they select, such of the powers exercisable under the Constitution by the Senators (other than this power of delegation and the power to make Statutes and Regulations under clause 24) for such time as they may think fit and to be exercised for such objects and purposes and upon such terms and with such restrictions as they think expedient. They may at any time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers. No delegation will prevent the exercise of any power by the Senate.

The Senate to appoint and delegate their powers to a committee of the University. Clause 16.1 provides:

The Senate may constitute and appoint such committees (at least one-third of which consists of Senators) and may delegate any of their powers (other than this power of delegation and the power to make Statutes and Regulations under clause 24) to such committees as they think fit. The Senate may at any time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers. No delegation will prevent the exercise of any power by the Senate.

The Vice-Chancellor is the chief executive officer of the University. Clause 21.2 provides:

The Vice-Chancellor is the chief executive officer of the University and, subject to this Constitution, has such powers and duties as prescribed by the Statutes or, subject to the Statutes, as the Senate determines.

The purpose of the Delegations of Authority Policy and Register is to be the source of the functions which the Senate authorises particular officers and bodies of the University to carry out regularly.

The Delegations of Authority Policy and Register sets out authorisations conferred by the Senate on officers and bodies of the University and committees of Senate for the purpose of carrying out their functions.

Scope/Application

- The Delegations of Authority Policy and Register applies to the University and its controlled entities, if any.
- The Delegations of Authority Policy and Register is not the source of all delegated authority. Register actions may be taken by University staff under implied authority arising from position descriptions, policies, procedures, schedules, guidelines and practices.

- University means the Australian Catholic University Limited, including its controlled entities (if any), any affiliated institution and any educational institution located on University premises.

Principles

- a) A delegation applies to the delegate's position and not to the individual in that position.
- b) Where a delegation is to a body (such as a Committee or a Board), it relates to the body acting as a body, not to individual members of the body.
- c) In exercising a delegation, a delegate must comply with all relevant legislation, the University's Constitution, Statutes, Resolutions of Senate; industrial awards and agreements. The Delegations of Authority Policy and Register is a 'superior' policy of Senate; it overrides any other University policies and procedures to the extent of any inconsistencies.
- d) A delegate must act in accordance with the University's Mission and Code of Conduct, for the purpose delegated and not for any improper purpose.
- e) A delegate must not exercise a delegation that would provide the delegate with any direct or indirect personal benefit, or conflict of interest. In circumstances where an officer would obtain a personal benefit the conflicted delegate must refer the decision to his or her supervisor and must not exercise the delegated authority.
- f) Where the delegated authority is a 'Member of the Executive' or a 'Member of Senior Executive', approval is sought from the relevant member who is in the delegate's direct reporting line.
- g) A person appointed as a temporary or acting occupant of a position has the authority delegated to the position in which he or she is acting.
- h) A delegate may not nominate a sub-delegate under their supervision to exercise a delegation for and on behalf of that delegate except where the Register specifically allows for a nominee, as authorised by Senate. If a delegate in accordance with the delegation register nominates a nominee, the delegate remains responsible and accountable for the decision or action. Where nomination is permitted, the nominating officer cannot exercise the same authority in a particular case if the nominee has already exercised it.
- i) A person who has immediate, intermediate or ultimate line management for a delegate may exercise the delegated authority of that delegate.
- j) A delegation that contains the words 'in consultation with', 'on advice from', 'on advice of', or 'on recommendation of' means that the delegation should not be exercised until the required consultation, advice or recommendation is received and considered. Written evidence of such consultation should be kept by the delegate.
- k) A delegate may sign any document to give effect to his or her function or authority, except for legally binding agreements or contracts specifically delegated to others as set out in the Register.
- Where a delegate is authorised to approve or enter into a legally binding agreement on behalf of the University, this also includes the authority to modify the terms of the original agreement. However, authority to terminate must be exercised by the relevant delegate upon advice from General Counsel or a legal practitioner employed as such by the University to ensure that the full legal implications of termination are considered.
- m) Notwithstanding the absence of an explicit delegation in the Register, all decision-making authority exercised by any University officer must be exercised in accordance with the foregoing Principles.

Note: In this section, unless otherwise indicated, there is a distinction between:

- a) authority to approve (including negotiate) the contents of a document; and
- b) authority to execute a document.

Authority to approve a document is determined by the delegations identified in this section. Authority to execute a document on behalf of the University as a corporate body is governed by section 127 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Power of Attorney dated 28 October 2014 (BK 4677 No 305 Registered 4 November 2014 in New South Wales).

If, upon advice of General Counsel or a legal practitioner employed as such or engaged by the University, execution of any document under the Corporations Act or the Power of Attorney is not required, authority to execute a document shall lie with the delegate authorised to negotiate and/or approve the relevant document, unless otherwise specified in the Delegations.
